The regular conference fee covers all lunches, coffee breaks, the conference dinner, and other conference materials and afternoon activities. Instructions concerning excursions and payment for them will appear in the next circular (February 2025).

We would also like to clarify that the online participants will only be able to view those of the panels that include virtual presentations – the rest of the conference will not be held in hybrid format, with the exception of the keynote presentations, which will be streamed live on the CBNS Facebook page.

Please note that, following University regulations, direct bank transfer is the only payment method that can be accepted. Regretfully, the University is unable to accept any other form of payment for conference registration (unfortunately, neither credit card nor PayPal nor cash payments are possible).

Please bear in mind that only those of the participants who have already registered as online speakers are eligible for the fee for online presentation.

Please note also that we will be unable to refund the fee difference should a participant wish to change their status from an in-person to a virtual presentation in the upcoming months before the conference.

For further details on the conference, please visit the official website (<https://saga2025.us.edu.pl/>) and Facebook profile (<https://www.facebook.com/CBNiSUS>)
